

BEING A STAR FRIEND

Do you know what it takes to be a star friend? Being a good friend is important because it helps us make and maintain friends. Use this activity to learn more about what a good friend looks like!

1. Choose your star colors! Choose which color will be for being a good friend and which stars will be for being a bad friend.
2. Color in the stars! What are the things that good friends do? What are the things that bad friends do?
3. Come up with 3 other things good friends do!

Pro tip - Paint dotters are a fun way to do this activity.
